

Town of Barnstable celebrates PARK(ing) Day
September 15th, 2017, 10:00am-2:00pm * Bismore Park, Ocean Street, Hyannis

Hyannis, MA—September 5, 2017—Consumer Affairs, Gateway Greeters and Parking Division, Town of Barnstable celebrates PARK(ing) Day, Friday, September 15th, 10:00am-2:00pm, Bismore Park, Ocean Street, Hyannis, in front of the Harbor Master Building. Free activities for all ages.

Park(ing) Day was created in 2005 by Rebar Group, Inc. and has blossomed into a global experiment occurring annually in hundreds of cities, dozens of countries on every permanently-inhabited continent on earth” www.rebargroup.com The concept behind this international celebration day is to repurpose parking spaces into park-like areas for artistic expression, recreation and social exchange.

The September 15th event includes:

- Explore a tee-pee and take time to create textiles made from re-used fabrics;
- Weaving on a hula-hoop, arm crocheting and a dress up area with costume item;
- Buckets of colorful chalk for individual art creations;
- Discover Barnstable information;
- Enjoy the lido deck of the SS Barnstable with cruise music and wading pool for ducks;
- Try your luck with “Parking Plinko” game, win a parking pass; and,
- relax in the space usually occupied by a vehicle.
