Hyannis Main Street Waterfront Historic District Commission

Agreement to Extend Time Limits Under Section 112-31(E) of the Hyannis Main Street Waterfront Historic District Ordinance

Section 112-31(E) states:

"If the Commission fails to make a determination through issuance of a certificate of appropriateness or a disapproval within the time period specified in Subsection E (45 days), or within such further time as the applicant may allow in writing, the Commission shall thereupon issue a certificate of hardship due to failure to act."

The Applicant hereby agrees that the time for the Commission to make a determination on the application is extended until _____.

In executing this agreement, the applicant hereto specifically waives any claim for a grant of a certificate of hardship due to failure to act based upon time limits applicable prior to the execution of this agreement.
