MARSTONS MILLS SCHOOL PROPERTY MASTER PLAN

The Town of Barnstable will host a public workshop for the Marstons Mills Former School Site Master Plan on Wednesday, May 29th at 6:00 PM at Liberty Hall, 2150 Main Street, Marstons Mills.

The intent of the public workshop is to continue to garner community input as to the future redevelopment of this site. This is the third public listening session hosted by the Planning and Development Department. The Town of Barnstable is seeking to create a Master Site Development Plan for the 14.2-acre parcel formerly the site of the Marstons Mills Elementary school and public input is critical to successfully establish site-specific land use goals which will inform the Master Plan. All residents are welcome to attend.

BCOA Memory Series

Join us at 10am on the second Thursday of every month starting in May for a 4-part series titled: Memories Are Made of This.

May 9th: This program will review how we retrieve information and discuss what is normal aging vs memory impairment.

June 13th: Learning Assessments - We will review the different methods of learning and or understanding new information. The program will review 3 different styles of learning and hopefully find the one that fits you.

July 11th: Memory Techniques - Tips and tricks that support memory recall.

August 8th: What's Normal, What's Not: Discussion about normal aging issues vs memory impairment.

Emily Dickinson Poetry Series

10:30 - 12:00 ON WEDNESDAY
5/8, 5/15, 5/22 AND 5/29

Celebrate our 150th anniversary with a four-part learning series of Emily Dickinson's poems with local resident David Webb. David has chosen 32 poems for this offering, eight per session, and hopes that a few friends of the Cotuit Library will choose to read, wrestle with, and discuss these poems with him.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS & EVENTS

AUTHOR TALK: NORTH OF FORTY (INSPIRING STORIES OF OLDER ATHLETES)

In her new book, Lauren Hurst and photographer Nick Cinea tell the stories of more than 50 older athletes ranging from ages 54 to 103, marathoners to mountaineers to martial artists, ordinary and extraordinary people. Told through captivating interviews and illustrated by stunning black and white portraits, their stories will inspire anyone who's made it "north of forty" and kept climbing.

Friday, May 17 (1:00–2:00 pm)

STUDIO IN A BACKPACK

We are partnering with Cape Media Center, the Town's public access station, to bring you this exciting 3-part session class to learn the ins and outs of easily recording with a Mevo camera. The first class will be an overview of the camera and to learn its functions and how to use it. The second & third classes will be hands-on for participants. The camera is the size of a large coffee cup, so it is easy to tote.

Mondays: 05/13, 06/03 & 06/17 (2:00–3:00 pm)

RESPITE PROGRAMS WITH STACEY CULLEN

CAREGIVER CONNECTION: AFTER THE CARE IS OVER

Recovering from loss, rebuilding your life. Join the BCOA for an open discussion about regaining our purpose after being a dedicated caregiver.
